32. 4. Registration.-

- (1) Registration for the first time in the University.- Students who have received notification of admission from the University will receive on arrival guidelines for the registration from the Dean of the respective College. A registration and orientation programme will be conducted by the Dean of the College for the benefit of the students joining the University for the first time. The programme shall be for a duration of 1 - 3 days. During this programme, the students shall be taken to the various departments and appraised of facilities available. They shall also be introduced to the course teachers, warden, deputy wardens and other staff members whom they should know. They may also be explained of various scholarships, and other assistantships available and methods of applying for them. Attendance in respect of fresh students for the first semester shall be reckoned from the first day after the completion of orientation programme. The registration will be done in person and failure to register for the first semester before nominated date shall result in forfeiture of admission.
- (2) Subsequent registration.- At the beginning of each semester there will be registration for various courses listed under a subject. The list of courses to be registered for a semester shall be given by the respective Co-coordinator in consultation with the Dean. The student in each batch shall have to register for the set of courses offered in "toto" for the batch and fill in the registration cards. The Coordinator in turn will countersign and send them to the Dean. The Dean's office should prepare a list of students who have registered for each course and send them to the University.
- (3) Payment of fees.- Payment of fees and other arrears due to the College, Departments, Hostel, Library, etc., shall precede commencement of each semester. The students shall be allowed to register for the semester only after payment of fees and production of clearance certificates from the hostel, library and such other places.

- (4) Preparation of timetable.- The timetable for a semester should be prepared by the Co-ordinator in consultation with course teachers of the semester. The timetable should be released only after the approval of the Dean of the concerned College.
- (5) Theory and practical schedules.- At the commencement of a semester, the theory and practical schedules should be drawn for a course by the course teacher and concerned head of the department and circulated the students with a copy to the Dean. The instruction should be strictly adhered according to the schedule. The Head of the department / Dean shall ensure that the schedule is adhered to and alternate arrangements are made to cover up the loss in case of any eventualities of unavoidable reasons that lead to non-adherence of the above schedule.
- (6) Late Registration of Courses.- Each eligible candidate including entrants shall register the requisite courses in the beginning of each semester within 13 working days, the first five working days without fine and the remaining eight working days with fine of Rs.50 /- (Rs. Fifty only) per working day. The attendance will however be reckoned from the day the instruction commences as per the academic calendar (i.e. second day of registration week).
- (7) Eligibility to move to the next year.- There is no restriction to permit the students to move to the next year. However, the students shall be permitted to register VIII semester only after completing all the prescribed semester course credits of the curriculum, (from semester I to VI) and Students READY programme and Study tour in the VII semester*
- (8) Duration and system of education.- The duration of B.F.Sc., degree programme shall be normally four academic years including six semesters of course work, one semester of experiential learning, one semester of in-plant training and All India Study Tour. The pattern of instruction and education in the university shall be "Semester course credit system". Each academic year is divided into 2 semesters. A semester is a period of 105 working days excluding the final theory examination days.
  - (a) Academic year: The academic year of the University shall ordinarily be from July to June (except in the case of year of admission) and shall consist of two semesters.
  - (b) Semester: A semester shall ordinarily consist of 105 working days. In addition, the final examination period shall not be reckoned as part of the semester.
  - (c) Credit hours: Each credit hour represents 50 minutes lecture or two hours of laboratory or field practical demonstrations each week in a semester.
  - (d) Course: A course is a unit of instruction or segment of subject matter (as specified in the course catalogue) to be covered in a semester. It has a specific number, title and credits. The courses shall be offered during the semester in which it is listed.

TNFU Regulations

- (e) Grade point of a course: It is a value obtained by dividing the percentage of marks earned in a course by 10. The grade point is expressed on a 10.00 point scale upto two decimals taking the third decimal alone into consideration.
- (f) Credit point of a course: The product of credit hours and grade point obtained by the student in a course.
- (g) Grade Point Average: It is the quotient of the total credit points obtained by a student in various courses at the end of each semester divided by the total credit hours taken by a student in that semester. The grading is done on a 10.00 point scale. The GPA is restricted up to the two decimals taking the third decimal alone into consideration.
- (h) Overall Grade Point Average (OGPA): It is the quotient of cumulative credit points obtained by a student in all the courses from the beginning of the first semester of the degree course divided by the total credit hours of all the courses the student had completed up to the end of a specified semester from the first semester. It determines the overall performance of a student in all courses taken during a period covering more than a semester. The OGPA shall be rounded off to two decimals taking the third decimal alone into consideration.
- (9) Internal theory examination: The internal theory examination would be conducted on completion of 40th working day of the semester and 90th working day. It shall be conducted only in theory for 30 minutes for a total of 4.0 marks (only objective type-20 marks converted to 4.0) and for 16 marks (in final theory model for 80 marks converted to 16) respectively.
- (10) Internal practical examination: The internal practical examination shall be conducted on the final practical class of the concerned course in a semester. The practical examination shall be conducted for 50 marks.
- (11) Final external theory examination: Final external theory examination for each course shall be conducted by the University at the end of each semester in the theory portion of the course. One day study holiday shall be given in between two examinations.
- (12) Instructional Holidays: Instructional holidays shall be declared by the faculty Dean for events in the students' activities and the semester working days shall be extended accordingly. Students who have registered for research credits shall be exempted from instructional holidays.
- (13) Supplementary Examination: There shall be supplementary examination for internal theory examinations for students absenting themselves for a specified genuine reason with the recommendation of the Students' Coordinator. However, the Faculty Dean has the discretionary power either to permit or reject the application after critically assessing the genuineness of the reason(s) for absence. The students who absent themselves for internal theory examinations may be allowed to write supplementary examination before final practical examination on payment of a fine of Rs.200/- (Rupees two hundred only) per examination.

- (14) Arrear Examinations: There shall be arrear examination for students secured less than 50% marks separately for theory and practical in a course. The arrear examination shall be conducted for theory or practical in which the student has failed. In the case of theory arrear examination, the examination shall include only external theory for 80 marks and for practical arrear examination it shall be conducted for 40 marks. The marks obtained in the first attempt for record shall be taken for arrear practical examination. The fees shall be Rs.200/- (Rupees two hundred only) per course. There shall be no arrear examination for internal theory examination.

32.5. Attendance Requirements.-

Every student shall ordinarily attend all classes in a course. Attendance in respect of fresh students for the first semester shall be reckoned from the first day of the commencement of semester. However, only for the students who are registering late due to late admission, attendance shall be reckoned from the date of their registration and this is only for the first semester of the first year Under Graduate programme. A minimum prescribed attendance in a course shall be 80%. The attendance shall be reckoned separately for theory and practical and a separate minimum under each category is required. A student who fails to put in the minimum attendance in theory or practical shall not be permitted to appear for the final external theory examination and the registration for that course shall be treated as cancelled. Such of those courses shall be reregistered by the student. Dean may depute students on the recommendation of the Vice-President of Student Association/Sports Secretary, to represent the College / University at various functions such as NSS, Sports, Medical aid, etc., and the mandatory minimum requirement of attendance under these circumstances is 70% (60% for university business/deputation) provided, the Dean is informed well ahead of time at least 2 weeks earlier. A student who fails to put in a minimum requirement of 80% attendance because of sickness, the mandatory minimum may be reduced to 70% on the basis of medical certificate for hospitalization obtained from Government hospital or a private nursing home. Under extraordinary circumstances, the Dean shall be empowered to give exemption on medical reasons, only on the recommendations of the Students' Coordinator.

Students absenting from classes by prior arrangements on official University business shall be given due consideration in completing attendance requirements and may be permitted by the Concerned Faculty Dean to condone the deficiency. However, this shall not apply to students appearing for internal theory and internal practical examinations. The Dean should ensure in ordinary circumstances that no student is officially deputed for University purposes so that the student fails to secure the 70% attendance. However, under no circumstances, (except on University business/deputation, for whom it is 60%), students having less than 70%

- (2) When once the work is approved by the competent authority, the Estate Officer shall take necessary steps to prepare detailed plans and estimates taking the help of private or Government architects who shall be paid remuneration as per prescribed rates for the work done. The University may employ one or more consulting Architects for constructing major works.

The following procedure shall be adopted in selecting the Architects and the execution of works

- (a) For every year for different regions Architects can be fixed from Panel of Architects approved by the University to prepare scheme drawings detailed working drawings including all internal services and structural designs along with bar bending schedule. For particular works after preparation of detailed plans etc., by the Architects, the engineering wing of the University prepare the detailed estimate, check the structural designs, take action to invite tenders, execute agreement, carry out the work, measure, check measure bills and make payment.
- (b) The architects fees shall be as follows.-
  - (i) Preparation of preliminary drawings at 1/2% and preparation of detailed drawings at 1% of the Estimated cost including all internal services.
  - (ii) Preparation of Estimates at 1.1/2% and preparation of structural designs for load bearing structure at 1% and structural design for framed structural at 2% of the Estimated cost.
  - (iii) (a) The fees should be calculated on the value of the estimated cost prepared by the University and a lumpsum paid. The architects will not be entitled for any increase in fees due to increased cost of completion of work. As regards the payment for their inspection, Rs.100/- per day to be paid towards incidental and other charges with actual first class train fare.

- (b) For complicated actual designs, if necessary, the University can get the designs checked by the Structural Research Centres, Guindy, or the Public Works Department.
  - (c) After the detailed drawings and structural designs are received from the Architects and after the detailed estimates are prepared by the Engineering wing for works over Rs.1,00,000/- (Rupees one lakh only), the Vice-Chancellor will discuss with the Heads of Department concerned and Estate Officer at site and finalise the same.
- (3) The technical sanction amount shall under no circumstances exceed the administrative sanction amount.
- (4) The Estate Officer shall then call for tenders, open or closed depending upon the type of work and cost estimates and decide on the contractors to entrust the work. Normally the best contractor should be entrusted with the work, irrespective of the tender rates, but proper justification for such decision should be given by the Estate Officer. Wherever necessary, he may consult Architects or Government Engineers before making recommendations in this regard to the Vice-Chancellor.
- (5) The Estate Officer shall obtain the approval of the Vice-Chancellor for entrusting the works to any tenderer, whose tender cost exceeds Rs.50,000/- (Rupees fifty thousand only) and also in all cases where the tender rate is more than 10 per cent of the estimate rates.
- (6) The Vice-Chancellor shall authorise acceptance of tender rates upto 20 per cent above the estimated rates. All other tenders which exceed 20 per cent of the estimates should be rejected in the normal course and the work retendered. In case, the rate tendered in response to retender exceeds 20 per cent of the cost estimates, the University may nominate a contractor to execute the work within 20 per cent in excess of the cost estimate and place the matter to the Board for ratification.
- (7) All works costing above Rs.1,00,000/- (Rupees one lakh only) shall be tendered and constructed as per the above procedure. All others shall be constructed departmentally or through local limited tenders, as decided by the Vice-Chancellor in consultation with the Estate Officer and other concerned person.
- (8) The detailed procedures for tendering and for the proforma for preparing tender documents, entering into agreement with the architects, contractors, etc., shall be the same as those prescribed by the Public Works Department of the State Government with suitable modifications.

  - or
  - (b) evidence given before an authority holding before any judicial or any inquiry Committee.

17. It shall be the duty of an employee who has been arrested on a criminal charge made or a proceeding taken against him in connection with his position as an employee or otherwise which is likely to embarrass him in the discharge of his duties or which involves moral turpitude to intimate the fact of his arrest and the circumstances connected therewith to the Vice-Chancellor promptly in writing even though he might, have subsequently been released on bail. Failure on the part of the employee concerned to so inform will be regarded as suppression of a material information and will render him liable to disciplinary action on this ground alone, apart from any action that may be taken against him on the conclusion of the case against him.
18. Any contravention of any law by an employee, which involves moral turpitude, shall be regarded as a serious matter, of which notice shall be taken departmentally. Where such contravention is followed by a conviction in a court of law, the employee may be punished departmentally on the basis of the conviction alone without following the procedure laid down for departmental enquiries.
19. (i) No University employee shall, except with the previous knowledge of the Vice Chancellor, acquire or dispose off any movable property in the shape of shares, securities or debentures, or any immovable property by lease, mortgage, sale gift or otherwise in his own name or in the name of any member of his family.

Explanation: The above rules apply only to cases in which the value of the movable or immovable property exceeds the amount equivalent to one year's salary of the University employee concerned.
- (ii) The Board of Management may at any time by general or special order require the employees to submit to the Vice-Chancellor within the period specified in the order, a full and complete statement of such movable and immovable property held or acquired by him or by any member of his family as may be specified in the order. Such statements shall include details of the means by which or the source from which such property was acquired;
- (iii) Provided that the Vice-Chancellor or the Officers of the University shall exercise the powers to call for the property statements under this sub-rule, when a specific vigilance enquiry calls for it.
- (iv) The University employees are prohibited from the possession and consumption of liquor or any intoxicative drink/drugs. The University employees are also prohibited from possession of liquor permits.
20. All employees of the University shall be subject to the general and overall control of the Vice-Chancellor.
21. The Vice-Chancellor may direct by general or special order that any power exercisable by him or any other officer or employee of the University under these regulations shall be exercisable also by such officer or other employee as may be specified in the order, subject to such conditions, if any, as may be specified in the order.

APPENDIX - IX

PROCEDURE RELATING TO DISCIPLINE AND CONTROL

AMONG THE UNIVERSITY STAFF

1. The authority which may impose the penalties mentioned in the Regulations are as detailed in Appendix-X.
2. (a) Where in any case a higher authority has imposed or declined to impose a penalty for reasons to be recorded under this Regulation, a lower authority shall have no jurisdiction to proceed under this Regulation in respect of the same case.
(b) The fact that a lower authority has imposed or declined to impose penalty in any case shall not debar higher authority from exercising his jurisdiction under this Regulation in respect of the same case.
(c) The order of a higher authority imposing or declining to impose in any case a penalty under this Regulation shall supercede any order passed by a lower authority in respect of the same case.
(d) The fact that a lower authority has dropped a charge against a person as not proved shall not debar a higher authority from reviving it, for reasons to be recorded and taking suitable action on the charge so revived.
3. In every case where it is proposed to impose on an employee any of the minor penalties shall be given a reasonable opportunity of making any representation that he may desire to make and such representation if any, shall be taken into consideration before the order imposing the penalty is passed.
- 4.(I) (a)(i) In every case where it is proposed to impose on an employee of the University any of the major penalties the grounds on which it is proposed to take action shall be reduced to the form of a definite charge or charges which shall be communicated to the person charged together with a statement of the allegations on which each charge is based and of any other circumstances which it is proposed to take into consideration in passing orders on the case. He shall be required within a reasonable time to put in a written statement of his defence and to state whether he desires an oral enquiry or only to be heard in person. An oral inquiry shall be directed by the authority concerned. At that inquiry oral evidence shall be heard as to such of the allegations as are not admitted and the person charged shall be entitled to cross-examine the witnesses to give evidence in person and to have such witnesses called, as he may wish, provided that the authority conducting the inquiry may for special and sufficient reason to be recorded in writing, refuse to call a witness. After the inquiry has been completed, the person charged shall be entitled to put in, if he so desires, any further written statement of his defence. If no inquiry is held and if he had desired to be heard in person, a personal hearing shall be given to him. The proceedings shall contain a sufficient record of the evidence and a statement of the findings and the grounds thereof.

- (ii) After the inquiry referred to in Clause (i) has been completed and after the authority competent to impose the penalty mentioned in that Clause has arrived at provisional conclusions in regard to the penalty to be imposed, the person charged shall be supplied with a copy of the report of the enquiring authority and be called upon to show cause within a reasonable time not ordinarily exceeding one month, against the particular penalty proposed to be inflicted. Any representation in this behalf submitted by the persons charged shall be taken into consideration before final orders are passed, provided that such representation shall be based on the evidence adduced during the inquiry.

Explanation.-An opportunity to show cause against the imposition of any of the penalties referred to in this regulation shall be given, after the authority competent to impose the penalty arrives at a provisional conclusion in regard to the penalty to be imposed either by such authority himself or under his direction, by a subordinate authority who is superior in rank on whom it is proposed to impose the penalty.

- (b) (i) The requirements of sub-clause (a) shall not apply where it is proposed to impose on a member of service any of the minor penalties on the basis of fact which have led to his conviction in criminal court whether or not he has been sentenced at once by such court to any punishment; but he shall be given a reasonable opportunity of making any representation that he may desire to make and such representation, if any, shall be taken into consideration before the order imposing the penalty is passed.
- (ii) The requirements of sub-clause (a) shall not apply where it is proposed to impose on a member of a service any of the major penalties on the basis of facts which have led to his conviction by a court-martial or where the employee concerned has absconded or where it is for other reasons impracticable to communicate with him.
- (c) (i) All or any of the provisions of Clauses 4 and 5 may in exceptional cases, for special and sufficient reasons to be recorded in writing, be waived where there is difficulty in observing exactly the requirements of the sub-clauses and those requirements can be waived without injustice to the person charged.
- (ii) If any question arises whether it is reasonably practicable to follow the procedure prescribed in sub-clause(a) the decision thereon of the authority empowered to dismiss or remove such persons or reduce him in rank, as the case may be shall be final.
- (d) (i) An employee may be placed under suspension from service, where;
  - (i) an enquiry into grave charges against him is contemplated, or is pending; or
  - (ii) a complaint against him of any criminal offence is under investigation or trial and if such suspension is necessary in the public interest.

- (ii) A University employee who is detained in custody whether on a criminal charge or otherwise for a period longer than forty eight hours shall be deemed to have been suspended under this rule.
- (iii) Where a penalty or dismissal, removal or compulsory retirement from service imposed upon a member of the University service under suspension is set aside in appeal or on review under these Regulations and the case is remitted for further inquiry or action or with any other directions, the order of his suspension shall be deemed to have continued in force on and from the date of the original order for dismissal, removal or compulsory retirement and shall remain in force until further orders.
- (iv) Where a penalty or dismissal, removal or compulsory retirement from service imposed upon a University employee is set aside or declared or rendered void in consequence of or by a decision of a court of law and the disciplinary authority on a consideration of the circumstances of the case, decides to hold a further inquiry against him on the allegations on which the penalty or dismissal, removal or compulsory retirement was originally imposed, the University employee shall be deemed to have been placed under suspension by the appointing authority from the date of the original order of dismissal, removal or compulsory retirement and shall continue to remain under suspension until further orders.
- (v) An order of suspension made or deemed to have been made under this Regulation may at any time be revoked by the authority which made or is deemed to have made the order or by any authority to which that authority is subordinate.

APPEAL

- 5. Every University employee shall be entitled to appeal from an order passed by an authority imposing upon him by any of the penalties specified in the Regulations, to the next higher authority. The Vice-Chancellor shall have powers to dispose off the final appeal petitions on service matters in respect of Group C and D employees.
- 6. (i) In the case of an appeal against an order imposing any penalty specified in the Regulations, the appellate authority shall consider:
  - (a) Whether the facts on which the order was based have been established;
  - (b) Whether the facts established afford sufficient ground for taking action; and
  - (c) Whether the penalty is excessive, adequate or inadequate; and after such consideration, shall pass such order as it thinks proper.
- (ii) Any error or defect in the procedure followed in imposing a penalty may be disregarded by the appellate authority if such authority considers, for reasons to be recorded in writing, that the error or defect was not material and has neither caused injustice to the person concerned nor affected the decision of the case.

7. In the case of an appeal the appellate authority shall pass such orders as appears to it just and equitable, having regard to all the circumstances of the case.
8. Every person preferring an appeal shall do separately and in his own name.
9. Every appeal preferred under the Regulation shall contain all material statement and arguments relied on by the appellant shall contain no disrespectful, defamatory or improper language and shall be addressed to the authority to whom the appeal is preferred and shall be submitted through the authority from whose order the appeal is preferred and through usual official channel.
10. An appeal may be withheld by an authority not lower than the authority from whose order it is preferred if-
  - (i) It is an appeal in case in which under this Regulation no appeal lies; or
  - (ii) It is not preferred within two months after the date on which the appellant was informed of the order appealed against, and no reasonable cause is shown for the delay; or
  - (iii) It is repetition of a previous appeal and is made to the same appellate authority by which such appeal has been decided and no new facts or circumstances are adduced which afford grounds for a reconsideration of the case, or it is addressed to an authority to which no appeal lies under the Regulation;

Provided that in every case in which appeal is withheld, the appellant shall be informed of the fact and the reasons for it.

11. No appeal shall lie against withholding of an appeal by a competent authority.
12. The authority by whom an order imposing any of the minor penalties specified in the Regulations may be reversed or altered in cases where no appeal is preferred to the appellate authority or any higher authority.
13. Every appeal which is not withheld under these Rules shall be forwarded to the appellate authority from whose order the appeal is preferred with an expression of opinion.
14. An appellate authority may call for any appeal admissible under this Regulation which has been withheld by a subordinate authority and may pass such order thereon as it considers fit.
15. Nothing contained in this Regulation shall be deemed to preclude an authority higher than the appellate authority to review cases either on its own initiative or on representation from University employees against the orders of the punishing authority or appeal authority.
- 16 (1) An employee under suspension shall be entitled to a subsistence allowance at an amount equal to a leave salary and dearness allowance (if any), which an employee would have drawn if he had been on leave on half pay:

Provided that where the period of suspension exceeds twelve months, the authority who made or is deemed to have made the orders of suspension shall be competent to vary the amount of subsistence amount for any period subsequent to the period of the first twelve months as follows;

- (i) The amount of subsistence allowance may be increased by a suitable amount not exceeding 50 per cent of the subsistence allowance admissible during the period of the first twelve months, if in the opinion of the said authority the period of suspension has been prolonged for reasons to be recorded in writing not directly attributable to the employee;
  - (ii) The amount of subsistence allowance may be reduced by a suitable amount, not exceeding 50 per cent of the subsistence allowance admissible during the period of the first twelve months, if in the opinion of the said authority, the period of suspension has been prolonged due to reasons to be recorded in writing directly attributable to the employee.
- (2) No payment shall be made unless the employee furnishes a certificate that the employee is not engaged in any other employment, business, profession or vocation.
- (3) A suspended person shall not be entitled to any leave for the period of suspension. When an employee who was suspended is finally reinstated, he shall get full pay unless the competent authority has expressly ordered a deduction to be made for suspension period as a punishment. In the case of dismissal or removal from service with retrospective effect no recovery shall be made of the subsistence allowance already paid to him.
17. The rules 1 to 16 prescribed above in this Appendix shall also be applicable to the transferred employees for their misdeeds committed during their service under Government and the University is competent to impose the appropriate punishment on them.
